The Lillian's Beauty Salon website is designed purely as a source of reference for the services offered by Lillian's Beauty Salon.

Personal information submitted to this website will only be used to provide clients with the information they have requested. We will not supply any information voluntary given by a client via our website to any other company.

For statistical purposes only we may gather website information including the Internet service provider (ISP) that has accessed our website, the date and time of day the website was accessed and the webpages viewed during the visit. All user details are kept in confidence and will never be shared or sold to any other company, business or individual.